Disclaimer: Dates and times above are estimates based on astronomical calculation and the standard 11 to 12 day yearly shift of the Hijri calendar. The actual first day of Ramadan 1448 AH depends on the official moon sighting (Hilal) announcement closer to the date and may move the whole schedule by one day earlier or later. Always confirm same day timings with your local Columbus mosque or the Fiqh Council of North America before relying on this calendar for fasting or prayer.
